The Scottale high school football team was to open its season with a game at Greensburg today. The Greensburg high team arranged for a dance after the game in honor of the least least least.

Voters Have Added Duty.
On November 2 the voters of Scott-dale will have an opportunity to vote whether or not the town shall take over the Scottdale free public library and levy a tax not to exceed two mills for its upkeep.

Council was petitioned several weeks ago by more than three percent of the voters of the borough to put this matter before the electorate. This will be the first time in the history of the town that an issue of this kind is to be voted upon. There is much discussion as to what the sentiment of the people is on the issue and it is doubly interesting because of the women voting.

Announcement.

The Brown Millnery Shop wishes to announce that in addition to their attractive fail assortment of millinery they will have special for Friday and Saturday from New York a large shipment of hats of the most elegant fabrics and ultra lines that will find favor with their high class trade.—Adv-23-3t.

CONSTITUTION HAS COME TO BE A SONG

CHICAGO, Sept. 24 - Con-gressman Good, of lowa, chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations, who is taking an active part in the congresan active part in the congress alonal elections throughout the country, today told a story which he believes is indicative of the low estate to which the Constitution of the United States has been given through the Theoretic conduct of Presithe mitocratic conduct of President Wilson and his official family during the past few years.

Mr. Good said that a friend of his was, in a bookstore in a nearby state a few days ago when a roung woman entered and inquired for a copy of the Constitution of the United States. The clerk, seemingly puzzled by the inquiry, called the manager of the store and told him what the young lady had asked for. He turned to the prospective customer and asked her to repeat her request.
